

New Event Presentation

Relaxing into Prosperity Through Tao"

"When Less Is More, Life's Fully Enough"

Presented by John A. Salat Book Author "Tao, Art of Flow"

Cost: Free Saturday, May 4th, 2013 from 3:30PM to 4:30PM

Appetizers following last presentation

Where: English Tao Center (ETC)

11139 E. Lower Azusa Rd., El Monte, CA 91731

What offers abundance while active from an achievement based world? Does overextending our efforts bring in prosperity? Is there a very simple plan authentically calling to us from less strive and more into genuine play? The lecture explores the richness to live practically from Tao. This presentation is interactive and encourages group sharing.

John Salat is a Certified Transformational Leader with over 30 year's experience of Chi Work. He teaches Reiki, Tai Chi, Qigong, Meditation, Energy Movement and other communication skills borrowed from Tao. He has placed his work into mainstream medical clinics and celebrity clients also participated in his unique workshops. During his own travels to China, John visited a dozen sacred temples including where Tao and Confucianism originated. John also studied with great living masters of Taoist principles. His work has been successfully published nationwide through various media artist. John's meditative medium(s) on the influence of Chi have appeared in numerous magazines, radio programs and television interviews.